

The Best Man's Duties

Now the best man has no excuse!

- The best man stays with the groom throughout the entire wedding day.
- He accompanies the groom to the ceremony and acts as a calming force.
- He carries the marriage license and bride's ring
- He carries the officiate's donation and also presents this donation on behalf and in the groom's name to the officiate.
- He signs the marriage certificate as a witness
- During the reception, he makes the first toast
- He dances with the groom's mother and other female family members
- He watches over the reception and is responsible to monitor the DJ and the music
- He is responsible for returning the groom's rented clothes as well as his own.
